CALVARY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL ANNOUNCES NEW UPPER SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

COLUMBUS, GEORGIA, JUNE 21, 2017—
Calvary Christian School (CCS) is pleased to announce the hiring of a new Upper School Principal. The CCS headmaster announced in April to CCS students and families, that Craig Johnson will succeed CCS High School Principal, Randolph Prudent, as Upper School Principal. Johnson started this position on June 15, 2017.

“I am eager to join the Calvary Christian team in serving Chattahoochee Valley families and students by providing an excellent education grounded in Christian truth and principles. “
-Craig Johnson, Calvary Christian School Upper School Principal

“Mr. Johnson is uniquely qualified to lead the Upper School of Calvary Christian. His commitment to excellence in academics, athletics, and the arts provides our students in 6th-12th with a complete Christian education. I am confident our parents and our staff will be blessed by his presence on campus and the impact he will have on our community. This is a huge win for Calvary to have someone of his caliber to lead our upper school.”
-Jim Koan, Calvary Christian School Headmaster

Craig Johnson assumes the role of leading the Upper School program, having gained extensive education and leadership experience at the prestigious Westminster Schools of Augusta. For 30 years, Johnson has equipped students for success in college and beyond. Johnson’s academic leadership includes Academic Dean, Upper School Principal, High School Principal, Fine Arts Department Chair and History Department Chair. His accomplishments include National Endowment for the Humanities Fellow (1995), Five-time Star Teacher of the year recipient, and Three-time GISA Debate Championship Head Coach. Johnson holds a Master of Education (MEd) in Supervision and Administration from Augusta State University (1993) and a Bachelor of Arts in History from Wheaton College (1983). Mr. Johnson and his wife, Lulu, have three grown sons, all of whom have gone through Christian school with the youngest recently graduated from Liberty University.

Calvary Christian School is a K3-12th grade school and offers the following: biblical instruction; challenging, non-common core academics; AP and Honor classes; dual enrollment; fine arts; a full athletic program; extra-curricular activities; weekly chapel; and before and after school care. CCS has a full-time onsite school nurse. Our family environment includes faculty with a love for Christ and teaching.

Since 1975, Calvary Christian School has been Teaching the Whole Child the Whole Truth. An ACSI and SACS accredited K3-12th grade school, CCS's faculty and staff are dedicated to providing real resources for spiritual, academic, social and physical growth for our students in a nurturing and supportive environment. As our school facilities grow, we continue to offer unparalleled opportunities.
